

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

LORENZO CARL PAYNES,

Plaintiff, No. CIV S-04-1868 MCE KJM P

vs.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE

Defendants.

BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL

WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

16 Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. By order
17 filed December 30, 2005, the court determined that plaintiff's amended complaint states a 18 cognizable claim for relief against defendants Runnels, Tuffin, Felker and Woodford and ordered 19 plaintiff to provide information for service of process on form USM-285, a completed summons, 20 sufficient copies of the amended complaint for service, and a notice of compliance.

21 On January 19, 2006, plaintiff returned various documents for service and on 22 March 20, 2006, the court directed service. Upon later review of the documents, the court
23 determined that the complaints plaintiff had provided for service were incomplete. Accordingly, 24 on May 16, 2006, the court vacated its March 20 order of service and directed plaintiff to return
25 complete copies of the complaints for service. Plaintiff has now returned the complaints.

26 | ////

1 On May 18, 2006, defendants requested an extension of time in which to respond
2 to the complaint. Because the court has deemed the original service to have been defective, the 3 request is denied as moot.

4 1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the instructions for service of 5 process, the copies of the August 23, 2005 amended complaint and copies of this order to the 6 United States Marshal. In its order of May 16, the court had directed the Marshal to maintain the 7 summons and USM-285 forms in its files.

8 2. Within ten days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal is 9 directed to notify defendants Runnels, Tuffin, Felker and Woodford of the commencement of this 10 action and to request a waiver of service of summons in accordance with the provisions of Fed.
11 R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c).

12 3. The United States Marshal is directed to retain the sealed summons and a copy 13 of the amended complaint in their file for future use.

14 4. The United States Marshal shall file returned waivers of service of summons as 15 well as any requests for waivers that are returned as undelivered as soon as they are received.

16 5. If a waiver of service of summons is not returned by a defendant within sixty 17 days from the date of mailing the request for waiver, the United States Marshal shall:

18 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant
19 pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 28 U.S.C.
20 § 566(c) and shall command all necessary assistance from the California
21 Department of Corrections (CDC) to execute this order. The United States 22 Marshal shall maintain the confidentiality of all information provided by 23 the CDC pursuant to this order.

24 b. Within ten days after personal service is effected, the United States 25 Marshal shall file the return of service for the defendant, along with 26 evidence of any attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of

1 the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant.

2 Said costs shall be enumerated on the USM-285 form and shall include the 3 costs incurred by the Marshal's office for photocopying additional copies
4 of the summons and amended complaint and for preparing new USM-285
5 forms, if required. Costs of service will be taxed against the personally
6 served defendant in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.

7 4(d)(2).

8 6. Defendants shall reply to the amended complaint within the time provided by 9 the applicable provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

10 7. Discovery shall not proceed until the court issues a discovery order. Generally, 11 a discovery order will issue after defendants file their answer.

12 8. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary
13 judgment, motions concerning discovery, motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59
14 and 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to Local Rule 11-110 shall 15 be briefed pursuant to Local Rule 78-230(m). Failure to oppose such a motion timely may be 16 deemed a waiver of opposition to the motion. Opposition to all other motions need be filed only 17 as directed by the court.

18 9. If plaintiff is released from prison at any time during the pendency of this case,
19 any party may request application of other provisions of Local Rule 78-230 in lieu of Local Rule
20 78-230(m). In the absence of a court order granting such a request, the provisions of Local Rule 21 78-230(m) will govern all motions described in #7 above regardless of plaintiff's custodial status.

22 See Local Rule 1-102(d).

23 10. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th Cir. 2003), cert.
24 denied sub nom. Alameda v. Wyatt, 124 S. Ct. 50, __ U.S. __ (2003), plaintiff is advised of the 25 following requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust administrative 26 remedies made by defendant pursuant to non-enumerated Rule 12(b) of the Federal Rules of

1 Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted claims without 2 prejudice. The defendant may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury and 3 admissible documentation to support the motion to dismiss. To oppose the motion, plaintiff may 4 likewise file declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible documentation. Plaintiff may 5 rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the complaint if the complaint shows 6 that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and plaintiff calls to the court's 7 attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies. Plaintiff may serve and file one 8 or more affidavits or declarations by other persons who have personal knowledge of relevant 9 matters. Plaintiff may also rely upon written records, but plaintiff must prove that the records are 10 what plaintiff claims they are. If plaintiff fails to contradict defendant's evidence with 11 admissible evidence, the court may rely on the defendant's evidence. In the event both sides 12 submit matters outside the pleadings, the court may look beyond the pleadings and decide 13 disputed issues of fact. If plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the motion, the 14 court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendant's motion. If the 15 defendant's motion to dismiss, whether opposed or unopposed, is granted, plaintiff's 16 unexhausted claims will be dismissed without prejudice.

17 11. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc), 18 cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and Klingele v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), 19 plaintiff is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion for summary judgment
20 made by defendants pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion
21 is a request for an order for judgment in favor of defendants without trial. A defendant's motion 22 for summary judgment will set forth the facts that the defendants contend are not reasonably
23 subject to dispute and that entitle the defendants to judgment. To oppose a motion for summary 24 judgment, plaintiff must show proof of his or her claims. Plaintiff may do this in one or more of 25 the following ways. Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the 26 complaint if the complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and

1 plaintiff calls to the court's attention those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies.
2 Plaintiff may serve and file one or more affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that 3 plaintiff believes prove plaintiff's claims; the person who signs an affidavit or declaration must 4 have personal knowledge of the facts stated. Plaintiff may rely upon written records, but plaintiff
5 must prove that the records are what plaintiff claims they are. Plaintiff may rely upon all or any 6 part of the transcript of one or more depositions, answers to interrogatories, or admissions
7 obtained in this proceeding. If plaintiff fails to contradict the defendants' evidence with 8 counteraffidavits or other admissible evidence, the defendants' evidence may be taken as the 9 truth and the defendants' motion for summary judgment granted. If there is some good reason 10 why such facts are not available to plaintiff when required to oppose a motion for summary 11 judgment, the court will consider a request to postpone considering the defendants' motion. If 12 plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the motion or a request to postpone 13 consideration of the motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to 14 the defendants' motion. If the defendants' motion for summary judgment, whether opposed or 15 unopposed, is granted, judgment will be entered for the defendants without a trial and the case 16 will be closed.

17 12. A motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or declarations will 18 be stricken.

19 13. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times
20 while the action is pending. Any change of address must be reported promptly to the court in a 21 separate document captioned for this case and entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice
22 of change of address must be properly served on other parties. Pursuant to Local Rule 83-182(f), 23 service of documents at the record address of a party is fully effective. Failure to inform the 24 court of a change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of the 25 action.

1 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil 2 Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but 3 not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.

4 15. Defendants' May 18, 2006 request for an extension of time is denied as moot.
